

Mystery Hill

May 1956

My friends,

Things are not looking good at all...

I am certain I'm being followed. It's very likely smugglers. Or possibly that grumpy snake charmer from the travelling circus. He was suspiciously interested in my compass.

It's time to bury the key that will open my treasure chest. Carry on down the path to the bridge and look for the message in a bottle. You can use this net to rescue it! I will leave further instructions with the key.

Bon chance! Mes ami
